By accepting the registration conditions, each participant takes full and complete responsibility in case of an accident that could occur during the outgoing or return trip to and from the cycloportive or during the cycloportive itself. Each participant also takes responsibility for the risks linked to such an event, including but not limited to, accidents with other participants, bad weather, road traffic conditions.

- Each participant shall be responsible for obtaining his or her own personal insurance cover.

- Each participant absolutely and completely absolves the Organisation of all responsibility with regards to the loss of, or damage to, any personal property regardless of the circumstances.

The Organisation, whilst having made every effort to (a) make the event as safe as possible for each and every participant, and (b) having addressed and or reduced and eliminated or having attempted to eliminate as many of the Risks as it is possible to have anticipated and foreseen, is nevertheless not able to control, or anticipate, or foresee all events, and this is accepted by all participants.

Article 9: SAFETY DURING THE EVENT

The route for the Haute Route Alps will not take place on closed roads, normal vehicle and pedestrian traffic must be expected.

The Organisation will provide safety and traffic support on the route in order to ensure that the event takes place in acceptable racing conditions, but participants must remain vigilant at all times.

Participants must adhere to the rules of the road, race officials, marshals and traffic police at all times including the following:

- Cycle on the right-hand side of the road, at all times;
- DO NOT cross the middle of the road at any time;
- Comply with all event road signage put in place by the Organisation;

The following rules have been put in place to ensure the safety of the participants and to allow for the effective management of the event:

- Participants must have their bib clearly visible on their back;
- Bike plates must be placed on the front of the handle bars and must be clearly visible at all times.
- Bibs and bike plates must not be modified, defaced, cut or reduced in size.
- It is strictly forbidden to wear earphones at any time during any stages of the event

Most of the stages of the event will start by means of a secured and non-timed convoy, riding at a regulated speed. Participants must respect the instructions given by the Organisation during this time and until such time as the official start of the stage is given.

When reaching the 'FINAL STOP TIMING' point, located outside of the Host City, the participants must continue to abide by the traffic laws for the remaining kilometres to the event Village.

Failure to abide by the event Safety Rules could result in a participant being awarded time penalties or disqualified from the event as laid out in Article 20 of these rules.

Article 10: MEDICAL ASSISTANCE

The medical service of the Haute Route Alps 2019 will consist of highly experienced doctors, medics, emergency response workers, and ambulances, the number of which will depend on the current rules specifications of the event at the time. For medical reasons, a participant can temporarily or permanently be withdrawn from the race. A medical emergency number will be put in place so that each participant can easily, in case of any major medical emergency, inform of their situation and do so 24/7 during the entire event.

Article 11: ANTI-DOPING

By registering for the Haute Route Alps 2019 all participants agree to respect the prohibition of doping and the provisions concerning anti-doping controls, as they result from laws and regulations in force. Anti-doping controls can be carried out at any time without prior notice by licensed authorities.

Article 12: RACE TIMEKEEPING

The timekeeping of the Haute Route will be carried out by an electronic timing system.

All participants will receive a bike plate that includes a sensor for timekeeping. This bike plate, which must be installed in front of the handlebars, will be used to control the race at various points on the route and to provide race timing for each participant.

For Stage 1, the start time for each rider will be the one given by the chip when crossing the first timing mat. From Stage 2 onwards a grouped start time will be given to the top riders of the peloton (25 first Men and 5 first Women on General Classification) based on the time of the first rider crossing the first timing mat.

Rankings will be based on the cumulative times between the beginning and finish of each of the timed sections.

Outside of the group start time for the first section, the time taken into account will be the one given precisely by the chip on your bike plate at the crossing each timing mat (start and end of each timed section and finish line).

A participant who has not completed the entire course will not be given a ranking at the finish.

For safety reasons, the organiser may decide not to time some portions of the course. These untimed sections must be entirely covered on your bike without external assistance (car, bus etc.) Riders who fail to respect these regulations are subject to time penalties and/or exclusion from the race detailed in Article 20.

Article 13: TIME LIMITS

Riders must complete every stage inside the stated Cut-Off time in order to obtain an Official Finisher Ranking.

Cut-Off times are dependent on several factors: distance and difficulty of each stage, weather, road conditions and total altitude gain and/or loss, and importantly is produced in partnership with the regional permitting agencies and law enforcement. Intermediary and stage Cut-Off times for each stage will be communicated in advance in the Riders' Roadbook, and at the daily briefing the evening before each stage.

The following rules apply to Cut-Off Times:

- If a participant does not meet a Cut-Off time, they will be removed from the course and will be required to return to the event Village in the broom wagon or by their own means.
- Missing the Cut-Off time on one day means the participant will no longer have an overall ranking for the event or for that stage. The participant will receive a Did Not Finish (DNF) on the official results for that stage. In such a case, the rider will be permitted to continue the event the next day but will not appear in the event General Classification. The participant will still receive a ranking for each subsequent stage completed and be eligible for other daily podiums.

The "End of Race" vehicle will have the authority to stop riders that have fallen outside of the 'Cut-Off time'.

Lanterne Rouge – The Lanterne Rouge is an important personality on all Haute Route events, and their role is critical in assisting, cajoling, encouraging and willing riders who are struggling to find the right mix of courage, ability, technique and energy to get themselves to the stage end within the stage Cut-Off time limit. The Lanterne Rouge does NOT define the Cut-Off time for a stage.

Article 14: PERSONAL ASSISTANCE

The participants of the Haute Route Alps 2019 may not receive assistance outside of the feed station zones put in place by the Organisation. This includes all forms of support including receiving mechanical and food/water assistance. Private support vehicles may not intervene outside of feed station zones in any way.

All drivers of private support vehicles must attend a mandatory briefing on Saturday 24th August following the rider briefing.

Failure to abide by the rules relating to receiving personal assistance could result in a participant being awarded time penalties or disqualified from the event as laid out in Article 20 of these rules.

Article 15: RANKINGS

Only individuals and teams who complete all stages and who cross the finish line every day within the Cut-Off time will be eligible for the final General Classification of the Haute Route Alps 2019 (Solo or Duo).

All riders must cross the final finish line in the Arrival Village on every stage. In failing to do so riders will be excluded from the daily ranking and thus the General Classification for the event. (i.e crossing the final finish line is mandatory, even if timing has stopped before reaching the Arrival Village).

15.4 Each Duo team will be ranked in the overall Duo ranking. This will be established on the basis of the Duo team's cumulative time across all stages knowing that the time of the second rider across the line will be taken into account.

If a Duo rider gives up, his/her teammate will be moved to the Solo Stage Classification for the remaining stages, but will not be added to the Solo General Classification.

Article 16: WITHDRAWAL

Withdrawal during a stage: if a participant is unable to complete a stage for any reason, the participant can use the broom wagon to get to the event Village. In this case the participant will be permitted to take part in the next stages but will no longer be ranked in the General Classification, as there will be no attributable time. If a participant withdraws or is withdrawn from a stage for medical reasons, they may not start the next stage unless the event Medical Director provides authorisation for them to do so.

Withdrawal from the Haute Route: in case of complete withdrawal, the participant will be responsible for leaving the Haute Route and returning home, along with his/her equipment and luggage (including his/her bike bag/cover which will be at the finish location for 7-day events).

Failure to start a stage:

If a participant fails to start a stage for whatever reason they will be given a Did Not Start (DNS) for the given stage. Should they want to continue to ride in the event in the following stages, the participant will not be eligible for placement in the event General Classification. The participant must make his/her own arrangements to get to the start line of the next stage.

Article 17: OFFICIAL PRIZE GIVING CEREMONIES

An official prize giving ceremony will take place, at the end of each day, immediately followed by the compulsory Rider Briefing. Riders who fail to attend are subject to penalties detailed in Article 20.

Winners of the Haute Route Alps will be given prizes but no cash will be awarded.

Article 18: DAILY SAFETY BRIEFINGS

The Technical Director will summarise the days stage and present a summary video of the stage at the Daily Safety Briefing. The following day's stage will then be presented to the participants, which will include essential information on the route, timing, road closures and other important safety information. Any last-minute changes to the stage will be communicated during this briefing.

It is mandatory that all participants attend the Safety Briefing

Article 19: AMENDMENTS TO INDIVIDUAL STAGE ARRANGEMENTS

For each stage of the Haute Route, the Organisation reserves the right to change at any time the course and/or the position of the feed stations and/or the Cut-Off times. Article 21: INSURANCE

What follows below is subject to the general disclaimer set out above in Article 1.

Civil Liability: In conformance with all relevant current legislation of the dominant and governing jurisdiction [please see Article 1], the organiser has taken out insurance that protects against the financial consequences of actions against the organiser, its staff and the participants in the race. With respect to the personal liability coverage of the participants, it is limited to the accidents they could cause during the race from the start line to the finish line of the timed sections. This insurance will take effect either as a complement to other insurance the participants might have or if participants do not have any insurance.

Personal Accidents: We highly recommend that all participants of the Haute Route 2019, with or without a license from a sports federation, take out an insurance guaranteeing the payment of a lump sum in case of injury (death or permanent invalidity) due to an accident that may occur during the Haute Route. The compensation, depending on the damages suffered, will be paid only if the participant who suffers the accident during the race is insured. It is an optional insurance but highly recommended. You can use it in addition to the similar type of insurance obtained via a sports' license (FFC for example).

Damage to personal possessions: the Organisation declines all responsibility for loss or damage to any of a participant's personal belongings. The organiser's insurance contract does not cover loss or damages suffered by participants due to loss of or damage to personal possessions including the bicycle and related equipment. To protect against costs and damages related to theft or damage to a bike or related equipment, all participants are responsible for obtaining their own insurance.

The Organisation cannot be held responsible for any possible accidents whether the rider is the cause or victim. Such accidents and the consequences of them must be covered by the insurance policy of the rider. The Organisation will accept no responsibility for debts, costs that the rider incurs, the repair and damage costs to the bikes, or the loss of any other material owned by the rider. The participant absolves the Organisation of all responsibility regarding the loss or damage to any personal property regardless of the circumstances.

Article 22: IMAGE RIGHTS

By participating in the Haute Route Alps 2019, each participant expressly allows the Organisation (or subsequent organisers) to use, reproduce or have reproduced his name, image, voice and sports performance through the race for any direct use or as a derivative of the race and this, in any material, in the world, by any means known or unknown to date, and for the duration of protection currently granted for such use direct or derived by the law or regulations, judicial decisions and/or arbitration of any country and by current or future international agreements, including any extensions that may be made at this time.
