

Haute Route Training Camp / Mallorca

General sales conditions

Introduction: Haute Route

All reference to the “Haute Route” or the “Organization” refers to Haute Route SA. its subsidiaries and affiliates, Haute Route events, its staff, employees, subcontractors, agents and representatives.

Participants in the Haute Route Training Camp Mallorca (“Training Camp”), are bound, as a condition of participation, to comply with the conditions set out below.

Description

The Haute Route Training Camp, Mallorca will take place on March 27th- 31st 2019 based from the Hotel Vanity Golf, Puerto de Alcudia, Mallorca.

Your obligations

To participate in the Training Camp, you will need to have a road-racing bike. If you bring your own bike it must be in a road worthy condition. It is your responsibility to bring with you any unique tools or special components for your bike.

The following equipment is strictly forbidden:

- Triathlete’s handlebars and any other handlebar extension systems;
- Bottles / cans made of non-deformable material (glass, aluminum);
- Recumbent bikes, monocycles, tandems, handbikes;
- Any system that does not conform to the definition of “racing bike”.

You must listen and adhere to the instructions of the Haute Route guides whilst cycling.

It is your responsibility to make us aware of any medical conditions before the training camp and anything that might affect your ability to participate in the activities.

You must not cycle under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

You must wear a helmet at all times whilst cycling.

Risks

Each participant recognizes that the Training Camp requires a minimum level of fitness and that he/she must be medically fit to participate. By accepting the registration conditions, each participant takes responsibility for the risks linked to the Training Camp, including but not limited to, accidents with other participants, bad weather, road traffic conditions.

Cycle sport and bike riding is an inherently dangerous sport and self-evidently exposes each participant to a number of risks “the Risks”, in particular but not limited to personal injury or mechanical damage to bike equipment. This is a fundamental and trite observation and it is not therefore deemed necessary, in these circumstances, to make a list comprehensive or otherwise of all or any of these so-called Risks. Suffice to say therefore, it must be understood that each participant accepts that there are the above-mentioned Risks, and other Risks involved in participating in the Training Camp, and that these Risks are the participants and not the Organizations. In signing up to the Training Camp each participant acknowledges and accepts the above proposition, and further accepts the following propositions, namely that:

- Each participant shall be responsible for obtaining his or her own insurance cover (see further detail below).
- Each participant absolutely and completely absolves the Organization for all responsibility with regard to the loss or damage to any personal property regardless of the circumstances.
- The Organization, whilst having made every effort “the Effort” to (a) make the Training Camp as safe as possible for each and every participant, and (b) having addressed and or reduced and or eliminated or having attempted to eliminate as many of the Risks as it is possible to have anticipated and or foreseen, is nevertheless not able to control, or anticipate, or foresee all events, and this is accepted by all participants.
- The Efforts are a continuing and ongoing process. In this light, the Organization will at its absolute discretion make changes to the course and or itinerary at short notice if it is deemed to be necessary to secure the objective of safety.

Alterations to the Training Camp Schedule/ Itinerary

We retain the right to adjust the Training Camp itinerary.

Insurance

There is no insurance attached to the “Training Camp”. We strongly advise that participants obtain personal insurance for loss, injury or damage that you might sustain arising from your participation at the Training Camp and travel. You ride at your own discretion and accept any injury or illness brought on your practice is your own responsibility.

Damage to personal possessions: the organization declines all responsibility for loss or damage to any of a participant’s personal belongings. The organizer’s insurance contract does not cover loss or damages suffered by participants due to loss of or damage to personal possessions including the bicycle and related equipment. To protect against costs and damages related to theft or damage to a bike or related equipment, all participants are responsible for obtaining their own insurance.

The Organization cannot be held responsible for any possible accidents whether the rider is the cause or victim. Such accidents and the consequences of them must be covered by the insurance policy of the rider. The Organization will accept no responsibility for debts, costs that the rider incurs, the repair and damage costs to the bikes, or the loss of any other material owned by the rider. The participant absolves the Organization of all responsibility regarding the loss or damage to any personal property regardless of the circumstances.

Our rights

Haute Route shall not be liable hereunder by reason of any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder on account of strikes, shortages, riots, insurrection, fires, flood, storm, explosions, acts of God, war, governmental action, labor conditions, earthquakes or any other cause which is beyond the reasonable control of such party.

Privacy and data

All personal and corporate information received is only used by Haute Route SA. for its own business purposes. We act in accordance with GDPR European Data Regulation law and will not pass on or sell your personal information and have no intention of sharing your data with third-parties for marketing purposes.

By becoming an Infinity Pass member or attending an event, you hereby agree to receive communication via email regarding upcoming events, news and offers. We will only hold the information provided on the membership application or booking form on file, and use for communication and delivery of membership benefit purposes only.

Image Rights

By participating in the Training Camp, each entrant expressly allows the organization (or subsequent organizers) to use, reproduce or have reproduced their name, image or voice for any direct use or as a derivative of the Training Camp and this, in any material, in the world, by any means known or unknown to date, and for the duration of protection currently granted for such use direct or derived by the law or regulations, judicial decisions and/or arbitration of any country and by current or future international agreements, including any extensions that may be made at this time.

Communications

The participant agrees to receive newsletters and other communications from the organiser relating to other sports events the organiser manages.

Haute Route SA
Chemin de Créteilles 28,
3975 RANDOGNE
SUISSE
contact@hauteroute.com